

WHERE IS HURLING STRONGEST?

The MacCarthy Cup is the senior Hurling trophy and the O'Duffy Cup is the All Ireland Camogie Cup. Some counties tend to win these trophies more often than others (see All About Hurling).

On the map of Ireland

- ➔ colour in red the counties which have won the MacCarthy Cup more than 5 times
- ➔ colour in blue the counties which have won the O'Duffy Cup more than 5 times.

Some of the counties will have to be coloured in both colours.

Are Hurling and Camogie strong in the same areas?

How would you describe the pattern of where Hurling and Camogie are strongest?

Can you explain the pattern?
