

NAME Lemony Smith

AGE Almost 15

HAIR Very long, very brown, just hanging there like a monumentally bored curtain most days.

EYES Green and framed with glasses you wouldn't even wish on an enemy of the state.

HOME A Victorian house with more books and papers than most libraries.

FAMILY Mum and Dad are university professors, older brother Paul is fun, but more like a family pet than a family member as we just feed and house him and don't expect real human conversation. My best friend Ro is over so often that she's pretty much a part of the family too.

LOVES Books, hanging out in town with Ro and Paul on a 'plenty of people' day, clothes, inventing things, talking too much.

DOES NOT LOVE The way I am a classroom super-brain, but a social super-idiot, my Nick obsession, my glasses, being all dressed up with no place to go but the same place as yesterday and the day before that and the day before that ...
