Danny was very excited.
Granny was coming to stay.
She always came to Danny's house
for her birthday.

Mum got Danny's bedroom ready for her.

Danny hid his dirty football
under his bed.

Then he stood at the window, waiting.

'She's here!'

yelled Danny at last.

He turned around in a rush
and almost flattened his little sister Susie.

Granny's hugs were too tight.
Her perfume smelled awful.

But Granny said:
'Let's all go to Good Time Grub
tomorrow for my birthday.'

'Yipee!' said Danny.
Good Time Grub was his favourite place to eat.

Later that night,
Granny gave Danny 50c.
'You're such a kind boy to give me your bedroom,' she said.
