ALFIE GREEN: A BRAND NEW ADVENTURE

Alfie Green is always having adventures, and now he needs your help to have another one! This time it is up to you to think of an exciting new adventure for Alfie.

You will need to decide on a setting and create a plot. A setting describes where the story happens. Will it take place in our world or in Arcania? A plot describes the things that happen in the story.

Put your ideas for the setting and plot in the box below. When you are finished, write the story of Alfie's new adventure in your copybook. Don't forget to give your story a title. Sometimes it is easier to think of a title after a story is written, so don't worry if you get stuck on this part – you can always leave it till last.

Remember: anything you want to happen can happen, and Alfie is counting on you!
