

THE STORY OF IRELAND

The Celts: Activity 4

The Celtic people are mysterious. They left no written evidence, so we have to rely on what others have written about them and use our imaginations to try to piece together what they were like. You can now see how difficult it is to understand what things were like so long ago with out having any evidence.

Do you think it will be the same for people in 2,000 years time when they look back at what we are like? If they wanted to know what your view of modern Ireland was, what impressions and observations would you like to preserve? Use the boxes below to draw a picture of yourself and write a very short account of what you think should be remembered about Ireland in 2,000 years time.
